Our 2018 Coaching Panel

Chloe Cowen Vickers 6th Dan

Chloe is the recently appointed Irish Judo Association National Coach. Chloe has the responsibility of developing the talent that we have at every level. Chloe will be engaged with both the Provisional Academies and clubs to develop pathways that maximise our committed players. This is Chloe's first visit to our Summer School.

Stephen McCloskey 5th Dan and Ann Marie McCloskey 1st Dan

Stephen & Anne Marie run The Judo Academy in Belfast, professionally. They have hundreds of players across schools and clubs. Stephen and Anne Marie are no strangers to Galway and have added to the body of knowledge that we have now.

Jim Toland 6th Dan.

Jim is a full time professional Judo Coach. Jim also oversees the technical development in relation to training of coaches, referees and other officials. Jim still partakes in the odd master's events and has a tremendous amount of experience internationally as a player, coach and manager.

Lisa Bradley 4th Dan

Lisa is returning to us again this year after a two-year sabbatical. Lisa is a former Commonwealth Bronze medallist as well as having lots of success both in Ireland, North and South. Lisa also has experience in the very technical area of Judo whether it be refereeing or coaching.

With our 5 highly qualified and highly experienced coaches we look forward to a Great Summer School that will benefit all Judoka of every age and experience. We have also organised an evening activity that you can attend on the Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday evening over the week. Another great opportunity to build on friendships made at the Judo Summer School. There will be a BBQ on the Thursday evening and all are invited to attend!

The Camp will follow the same format that has proven successful over the years.
