25.2 The Irish Judo Association is officially registered with the National Vetting Bureau (Garda Síochána). All Irish Judo Association personnel's (board members, staff, appointed coaches, club coaches and volunteers) engagement with the vetting process is now compulsory under the Child First Act. This practice is in line with the best safeguards available to protect the welfare of children and vulnerable adults who come under the jurisdiction of the Irish Judo Association while conducting its' mission. Re-vetting will be carried out for all relevant personnel as directed by the Association.

26. Ethical Conduct

26.1 All individual members, clubs, coaches, officials, squads and those associated with the Association must abide by the directions, rules, regulations and procedures set out in the Association's Code of Ethical Conduct. This can be amended from time to time by the Executive Board of the Association.

26.2 All disputes arising out of or in connection with the presents of the IJA Constitution or such regulations as may be introduced from time to time by the Association, after all the procedures set out in the Association's Code of Ethical Conduct have been exhausted, can be referred to Sport Dispute Solutions Ireland (hereinafter "SDSI") for resolution in accordance with the SDSI Mediation Rules. If the dispute remains unresolved at the conclusion of the mediation process, the dispute shall be referred to SDSI for binding arbitration in accordance with the SDSI Arbitration Rules. The arbitral award issued by SDSI may be appealed exclusively by referral to the Court of Arbitration of Sport (hereinafter "CAS") in Lausanne, Switzerland, within 21 days from receipt of such arbitral award for final and binding arbitration in accordance with the CAS Code of Sports Related Arbitration

27. Standing Orders for General Meetings and Meetings of Committees

27.1 There is no voting by proxy at any meeting convened by the Executive Board or Provincial Council. The Association will abide by the rules contained in the Companies Act 2014

27.2 The quorum for Executive Board meetings shall be four and for all meetings of the Association to include Annual General Meetings and Extraordinary General Meetings, ten per cent of Fully Compliant Ordinary/University Member Clubs

27.3 The business of the meeting shall be confined to the agenda, save for matters, which at the discretion of the President / Chairman of the meeting are deemed to be urgent

27.4 Save where the meeting may by resolution vary the order of business, to give precedence to matters of urgency the order of business shall be: - (a) minutes of last meeting (b) matters arising (c) reports, reading, discussions and acceptance (d) notices or resolutions and other items as set out on the agenda

27.5 Notices or resolutions shall be sent in writing to the Honorary General Secretary at least four (4) weeks before an Annual General Meeting and at least one week before committee meetings. An agenda shall be forwarded to member clubs two weeks prior to an Annual General Meeting. For General Meetings the Executive Board shall have the right to withhold any notice, or resolution, if in their opinion such notice or resolution is irrelevant to the objectives as set out herein, provided that such action shall be reported by the President/Chairman at the General Meeting, and that the item be placed on the agenda if it is the desire of 75% of those present

27.6 The following notices or resolutions shall be moved without notice: - (a) that the minutes be confirmed (b) that the reports be received and adopted (c) that any business particulars have precedence (d) that a temporary commission be appointed (e) formal resolution relating to closure, adjournment, and next meeting (f) on a point of order

27.7 Resolutions of Annual General Meetings may not be rescinded or varied except upon resolutions duly made on notice. Resolutions of Committee Members may not be rescinded, varied, or the business contained therein discussed within a period of less than six months without the approval of two thirds of the members present

27.8 No resolution of which notice appears on the agenda shall be proceeded with in the absence of the proposer and or the seconder, and in such absence the resolution shall be considered withdrawn and shall not be moved without fresh notice and in any case the proposer must open the debate

27.9 No nominee of a club shall move more than two amendments upon any resolution, and in any event, the maximum number of amendments to a resolution shall be two. Following the reaching of consensus on the second amendment, the amended resolution shall be put to the meeting by the President/Chairman in reverse order, of which they were originally put

27.10 All amendments shall be dealt with separately and must not be a direct negative of the main resolution. Where an amendment is proposed and seconded, discussion shall be confined to that amendment and a vote shall then take place on the amendment. If carried the amended resolution is then to be put to the meeting for further consideration and or amendment and discussion. If the proposed amendment is not carried, the original resolution stands and discussion proceeds

27.11 At all Meetings, during debates, speakers must announce their name and club and may not speak on a motion for more than two minutes unless invited to do so by the President/Chairman

27.12 The President/Chairman shall have the power to adjourn the meeting, or to settle points of discussion, not otherwise dealt with in Standing Orders, and in any event, on a question of procedure or interpretation of a Standing Order the ruling of the President/Chairman shall be final

27.13 Unless a poll is demanded, by either the President/Chairman, or 75% of those members present and entitled to vote, a resolution shall be decided by a show of hands. Resolutions adding to, altering, or rescinding the Constitution or any part thereof shall be decided by a seventy-five per cent majority of voting members present. Where there is equality of votes the President/Chairman shall be entitled to a casting vote

27.14 Ordinary Member clubs can call an EGM provided they follow procedures as per The Association Act 2014 Breaches of Order

27.15 A member is deemed to be guilty of a breach of order, when: - (a) there is a refusal to vote in the case of a division (b) uses objectionable words and refuses to withdraw the comment and apologise appropriately (c) uses offensive words in respect of another member (d) wilfully disturbs the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting (e) disobeys a lawful direction from the Chair

27.16 Where a breach of order is deemed to have taken place by the Chair, the member may be requested to leave the meeting and/ or may be suspended from future meetings for a fixed period

27.17 Where there is a charge of disorderly conduct, the resolution shall be distinctly stated, and a resolution made thereon. The person so accused shall be entitled to proffer an explanation before a decision is recorded. In any event, the accused shall then leave the meeting and await the result of the meeting regarding the accusation

28. Voting at the AGM/EGM/General Meetings

28.1 The President / Chairperson in the event of a tied vote shall have a casting vote

28.2 All Fully Compliant Ordinary Clubs and University Clubs shall have the entitlement of being represented at the meeting by a Fully Compliant Senior Member, a Life Member of the Club and or a Fully Compliant Student Member (1 vote). Where any Fully Compliant Ordinary Club or University Club has seventy-five or more Fully Compliant Members there is an entitlement for that club to be represented by an additional Fully Compliant Member (2 votes).
