Job Title – National Performance Pathway Coach (NPPC)

Job Purpose & Key Responsibilities

The IJA is recruiting a National Performance Pathway Coach (NPPC). The NPPC will be responsible for Pathway delivery from Talent Development Programme Recruitment right through to Cadet and Junior Programmes. The successful candidate will also have strategic input into the Pathway Programme design with regards to the responsibility within this programme of delivery. To best align strategy and delivery throughout the Pathway, the NPPC will work closely with, and be accountable to the IJA National Lead Performance Coach and the Performance Director.

The National Performance Pathway Coach will have immediate responsibility for the delivery of:

- The IJA National Squad Programme
- The IJA Performance Pathway

Relationships

- Be prominent on the world stage to ensure that good relationships with the International Judo Federation and other National Federations are achieved in support of the 'Programme Goals.'
- Report to the IJA National Lead Performance Coach and Performance Director on all strategic aspects of the IJA Performance Plan and gain approval for implementation, along with similar reporting to Sport Ireland on targets planned and results achieved.
- Develop and maintain strong relationships with key external stakeholders who are contributing to the key objectives of assisting athletes to win medals nationally and internationally.
- Work to achieve a sport-specific profile at all levels via media opportunities and attendance at competitions.
- Positively promote the position of the IJA as the National Governing Body for Judo in Ireland at all times.
- Always uphold the core values of the Irish Judo Association.
